

Garden Checklist

By California Association of Nurserymen

1. The secret to long bloom with most plants is to keep faded blooms picked off. Letting them go to seed saps energy from the plant.
2. Remember the axiom in lawn care: Fertilize lightly and frequently—water deeply and infrequently. Ask your nurseryman to recommend a schedule.
3. Keep pinching fuchsias to encourage bushy growth. Feed them with liquid fish at least once a month for good results.
4. For a quick fill-in of early summer color, try the dwarf bedding dahlias. They are available as inexpensive seedlings in nursery flats.
5. Keep after snails and slugs. Bait or pellets should be placed at intervals throughout the garden for control.

Ranchero Parade to Start At 6 P.M., Chairman Says

The third annual Ranchero Days invitational parade has been moved back timewise from the usual 10 a.m. starting time to 6 p.m. on Saturday, July 25, it was announced today by the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Lt. D. C. Cook, chairman of the event, said the change was made to allow more people who work Saturdays an opportunity to see the parade which in two short years is recognized as one of Southern California's finest. The earlier time also created a traffic problem which strangled downtown shopping. Last, but not least, Lt. Cook said that the heat has created a problem for marchers and spectators alike, whereas the early evening schedule should allow for cooler weather.

INSTEAD of the three-hour marathon of last year, the 1959 parade will be limited to 1 1/2 hours. No one will be allowed in the parade, except local groups, without an invitation. Sponsors say this is one of the few parades in the select "invitational only" category which attests to its popularity.

No decision has been reached as yet as to whether it will be televised—the latter time creating tremendous scheduling problems for TV channels. Last year's event was televised by Vel's Ford and reshown a second time a week after the parade, due to popular demand.

Local groups are urged to enter floats as trophies will be presented winners of the first three prizes.
